MEMORANDUM

DATE: April 2, 1981
TO: The Press
FROM: Communication Office/Episcopal Church
SUBJECT: Anglican Primates' Meeting, Washington, D. C.

Please return the form below to our office by April 22 if you plan to be present at the College of Preachers, Washington, D. C., while the Anglican primates are in session, April 26 to May 1.

Three services in Washington Cathedral will be open to the press and public: April 26, 11 a. m., Archbishop Robert Runcie of Canterbury preaching; April 26, 4 p. m., Evensong, Bishop John T. Walker of Washington preaching; and May 1, 4 p. m., Evensong, Archbishop Khotso Makhulu of Central Africa preaching.

The primates' discussion sessions Monday through Friday of that week are closed to the press but briefings will normally be held immediately after the morning and afternoon sessions. A closing press conference is expected to be held on Friday, May 1 at 2 p. m.

The press room will be on the third floor of the cathedral's administration building. The facility will be staffed by the Rev. Richard J. Anderson and Walter H. Boyd of the communication office at the Episcopal Church Center in New York City. Telephone numbers assigned to the press room during the primates' meeting are: 202/363-7604 and 202/363-7680.
